

Jaime Lyn Spears-July 2008

daughter, Maddie Briann.

Baby Swags welcomes Maddie Briann Aldridge, with a unique baby gift basket made using work at home mom products.

Plainfield, IL (PRWeb) July 8, 2008 – New celebrity mommy, Jamie Lyn Spears has been the next celebrity parent to receive an exclusive Baby Swags gift basket to welcome her daughter, Maddie. Work at home mom's team up with Baby Swags to provide handcrafted products to new celebrity parent.

“Jamie Lyn has been blessed with the birth of a daughter, and we just wanted to share in their excitement the only way we know how, and that was through our products/services.” Stated Phyllis Pometta, founder of Baby Swags.

Maddie along with her mom has received the following products: Trinkets to Bows - Headbands, clippies, bows and flower clips for Maddie.

Babykakesink! - Jamie Lyn received an original personalized alphabet onesie in light pink with chocolate dots.

Danielle Elizabeth - Pink Bird Damask Messenger Diaper- Soft and Lightweight, Ribbon and rhinestone trim, convenient external elastic bottle sleeve and personal pocket. Comes with two large internal compartments, two internal elastic pockets and one bottle pocket, eight pockets total. Features also include, hidden magnetic closures, removable and storable, easy-to-clean oilcloth changing pad and tethered key-ring clip. Made in the USA.

The Daughter-In-Law Rules - by Sally Shields. Whether you're at the beginning of your marriage or you've spent years trying to make peace with your mother-in-law,, The Daughter-In-Law Rules provides a revolutionary set of strategies, making copasetic co-existence possible at last.

Dose Keeper - an award winning child safety product, helps parents keep track of their child's last medicine dose, therefore preventing accidental overdose.

About Baby Swags:

All of the products supplied have been created by mom, invented by mom, or is a mom owned boutique. Baby Swags fully supports the work-at-home mom, their products and services to which they provide to and for the everyday mom. It takes a strong woman to build up their business while maintaining their role as mom, wife, and friend. It is for these strong women that many of our products exist today. Being able to assist their clients in promoting their products affordably is one of the great services that Baby Swags can provide. Phyllis Pometta, Baby Swags founder and work-at-home mom is on the rise to finding the most unique, most wanted and sought after mom and baby products out there. Not only does quality play a factor in her search, but products also have to be affordable. It is a goal to be able to bring these products into the public eye. Keep your eyes open as new products surface every day.