

Sean "Diddy" Combs-March 2007

Diddy and Kim Porter Set to Receive Baby Swags Custom Gift Basket!

Baby Swags welcomes Diddy's twin girls, with a unique baby gift basket filled with work at home mom products!

Plainfield, IL (PRWeb) March 18, 2007 — New celebrity daddy, Diddy has been the next celebrity parent to receive an exclusive Baby Swags gift basket to welcome the twins. Work at home mom's team up with Baby Swags to provide handcrafted products to new celebrity parents. All of the companies that have sent their products do so out of their admiration for the entertainer.

Founder of Baby Swags, Phyllis Pometta is an Illinois native to where Mayor Daley honored Diddy with his own day, appropriately named, "Diddy Day". This was done as a reward for charity work that Diddy has done with the city of Chicago. "He (Diddy) is an inspirational man." States Pometta, "He has done so much in his life and he continues to raise the bar for himself. I respect that quality in any person."

The "Diddy" twins are receiving great products from these hard working mom owned businesses. FairyPrincessDesigns.com provided the girls with their own personalized chenille pillows decorated with Swarovski Crystals. DonovanDesignsInc.com has set up the family with their own personalized paper products such as note cards and notepads. Simple, classic, colorful designs add a special touch to this gift. Wigglesquirts.com has sent adorable hand painted "Princess" shoes and personalized pink satin slipper shoes. TipsieToes.com has sent both girls a pair of flexible soled toddler shoes. MyPinkPrincessJeweltique.com included 2 Sterling Silver and Swarovski Crystal newborn bracelets. BabyKakesInk.com supplied each baby with their own personalized, embroidered blankets along with their own Diva onesie. Very Necessary founder and mom of triplets provided the girls with 2 sets of SnugEase bibs available at snugease.com. SnugEase bibs are a must have for any parent! This bundle of love baby basket retails for approximately $800.00

About Baby Swags:

All of the products supplied have been created by mom, invented by mom, or is a mom owned boutique. Baby Swags fully supports the work-at-home mom, their products and services to which they provide to and for the everyday mom. It takes a strong woman to build up their business while maintaining their role as mom, wife, and friend. It is for these strong women that many of our products exist today. Being able to assist their clients in promoting their products affordably is one of the great services that Baby Swags can provide. Phyllis Pometta, Baby Swags founder and work-at-home mom is on the rise to finding the most unique, most wanted and sought after mom and baby products out there. Not only does quality play a factor in her search, but products also have to be affordable. It is a goal to be able to bring these products into the public eye. Keep your eyes open as new products surface every day.